4. Discussed with the Minister. It was settled that they adopt the following sliding scale (which is only slightly different from the one adopted by the Madras Government) consistently with the principles of classification we have followed in the past.

Locality	Those drawing a salary of Rs.80/- and below	Those drawing a salary of Rs. above Rs.80/- but not above Rs.87/-
1) Bangalore city, Mysore City, K.G.F., and Davangere Town	Rs.5/-	Rs.7/-
2) Other places	Rs.3-8-0	Rs.5-8-0

2. Allowances will also be given to persons who draw salary above Rs.80/- but below Rs.87/- in the special localities mentioned at 1) above, and below Rs.87/- in other places, to the extent necessary to secure that they are not worse off in total emoluments than those drawing Rs.80/- in the same place.

3. The revised rates referred to above will have effect from 1st September 1942 until further orders.

4. Salary will, for the purpose of this rule, include all emoluments excepting conveyance allowances and Local allowances given on account of unhealthiness or expensiveness of the locality. The allowances sanctioned in this order may count for calculation of leave allowance also, basis in accordance with Article 474(a) of the Civil Rules as framed.

5. The extra cost on account of the revision may be roughly worked out at about Rs.20 lakhs, as correct figures cannot be worked out until two months actuals become available.

6. This may be disposed of by circulation.

DEARNESS ALLOWANCE FOR GOVT. SERVANTS

INCREASE IN RATES ANNOUNCED

MADRAS, Aug. 28.

The Government have decided to introduce a revised scheme of dearness allowance to Government servants. The following communique has been issued to-day:

In view of the recent sharp and widespread rise in the cost of living, the Government of Madras have decided, in supersession of all the previous orders on the subject, to grant with effect from 1st August 1942, an increased rate of dearness allowance to Government servants serving under them, including those whose headquarters are situated in the States adjoining the Madras Presidency.

For the purpose of this allowance, the stations concerned have been divided into three areas as follows:

Area A includes Madras City only.

Area B comprises the following 26 towns with a population of over 50,000:—Bellary, Bezwada, Calicut, Cocanada, Coimbatore, Conjeeveram, Cuddalore, Dindigul, Ellore, Guntur, Kumbakonam, Madura, Mangalore, Masulipatam, Negapatam, Nellore, Palghat, Rajahmundry, Salem, Tanjore, Tinnevelly, Trichinopoly, Tuticorin, Vellore, Vizagapatam, Vizianagaram.

Area C includes all areas not specified in areas A and B above.

For those drawing Rs. 39 and below the rates of allowance in areas A, B and C will be Rs. 5, Rs. 4½ and Rs. 4 respectively. For those drawing pay above Rs. 39 and not above Rs. 80 in areas A and B the allowance will be Rs. 7. Similarly for those drawing pay above Rs 39 and not above Rs. 60 in area C the allowance will be Rs. 5.

The allowance will also be given to persons who draw pay above Rs. 80 but below Rs. 87 in areas A and B and above Rs. 60 but below Rs. 65 in area C to the extent necessary to secure that they are not worse off in total emoluments than those drawing Rs. 80 in areas A and B and Rs. 60 in area C respectively.

12. Even in Madras, it is the total emoluments that appears to be the basis for ~~the~~ determining the eligibility to Dearness Allowance or to the graded scale of it as in the cutting from the News Paper enclosed in the file both the terms "Pay and Emolument are used.

This may be made Sure. H.G.

13. The definition of the term "Salary" as indicated in the file is equitable, was used by us during the last War and may kindly be approved.

15. The L.S.G. Minister had minuted that pay (and not salary) may be taken as the basis for determining the admissibility of the allowance as in Madras. I believe that in the Madras Order also thex term "pay" is not used as opposed to "salary" for calculating this allowance, as such an arrangement gives scope for several anomalies. To quote only two examples, supposing an official in Bangalore City is permanent on Rs. 45/- and he is drawing an acting allowance of Rs. 12/- or so, he will then be entitled to a Dearness Allowance of Rs. 7/-, if salary is treated as the basis. If pay is to be the basis, he can draw only Rs. 5/-. Again, if an official in Bangalore Cit is permanent on Rs. 80/- and acting in a higher post which fetches him an acting allowance of Rs. 20 or so, he will not be entitled to Dearness Allowance if "salary" is adopted the basis, while he will be entitled to this relief even though he may be drawing an emulument of Rs. 100; if pay be taken as the criterion. As the allowance is meant for giving relief in cases, where the income of an official is below a specified standard, the term "salary" as defined in my note appears to be very equitable and this principle has also been followed previously during the last War, and stood the test of time of our human experience.

16. I shall, however, get the information required by the Minister, L.S.G., regarding the basis actually adopted in Madras. But sanction to the allowance need not wait till the information is received.

17. I may also mention that there is difference in living conditions from place to place and Province to Province and the need for relief in a costly place may not be as great in a less costly place. The scale of the Dearness Allowance referred to in my note is that fixed by the Finance and Revenue Minister after due consideration of all these factors and may kindly be sanctioned.

18. The Dewan was pleased to suggest that the position of Bangalore may be kept apart and that Mysore Davangere, K.G.F., need not be brought into the higher category in view of the fact that Bangalore

FINAL NOTE BY THE MINISTER FOR FINANCE AND REVENUE.

Subject:— 27) Proposal to grant revised scales of dearness allowance to Government employees drawing Rs 80/- and below.

28) With the gracious approval of His Highness an enhanced dearness allowance of Rs 1-8-0 per mensem was sanctioned with effect from 1st July 1942 to officials drawing salary - up to Rs 50/- in Bangalore, Mysore, Kolar Gold Fields and Davangere and to those drawing up to Rs 40/- in other places.

29) The Government of India, including the Provincial Governments, have since further enhanced the rates of deanness allowance to their low-paid employees in view of the increased cost of living, with effect from 1st August 1942. The Madras Government have sanctioned a sliding scale ranging from Rs 4/- to Rs 7/-, the maximum emoluments for purpose of title to the allowance being fixed at Rs 80/-. As conditions in this State are more or less similar, there is need to enhance the allowance payable to the State employees also.

30) The subject was considered at a meeting of the - Council of Ministers held on the 16th September and after considering all aspects of the matter, it was decided that the scale of dearness allowance to Government employees be modified as follows with effect from 1st September 1942, this order being applicable till the end of June 1943. The extra cost is expected to come to about Rs 19 lakhs and a demand for the actual amount required will be placed before the Legislative Council in due course.

P. T. O.

Locality.	Those drawing a salary of Rs 50/-/- and below.	Those drawing a salary above Rs 50/- but not above Rs 80/.
1. Bangalore City	Rs5/-/-	Rs 7/-/-
2. Other places	Rs3/8/-	Rs 5/8/-

N.B.- Allowances will also be given to persons, who draw - salary above Rs 80/- but below Rs 87/- in Bangalore City and below Rs 85-8-0 in other places to the extent necessary to secure that they are not worse off in total - emoluments than those drawing Rs 80/- in the same place.

31) The question of allowance payable to the Railway employees other than clerical is dealt with separately.

32) I now solicit the gracious approval of His Highness to give effect to the above decision.

Through:-

The Registrar,
General & Revenue Secretariat, Bangalore.

Respected Sir,

We the undersigned beg to bring the following few lines for your kind consideration and favourable orders.

The prices of foodstuffs and other necessaries of life have gone up beyond our means of purchasing them. As the price of Rice, Dhal, etc., has increased by about 100%, the difficulty to maintain ourselves is becoming more and more difficult day after day.

In the above circumstances, we beg to request you to recommend a dearness allowance. We may kindly be permitted to submit, in this connection, that Government of India have in similar circumstances, recently sanctioned a dearness allowance ranging from Rs.5/- to Rs.9/- for officials on a pay of Rs 100/- and below.

We will feel much relieved of our existing economic difficulties, if the Government kindly sanction the concession prayed for.

We beg to remain,
